

Tasting Wines

Henri Ehrhart Pinot Noir '18 Mois', France

Fresh yet complex, balancing ripe fruit with subtle oak influence

Louis Latour Mâcon-Lugny, France

Pale yellow in colour, an intense nose which reveals aromas of muscatel and brioche. Ample and round on the palate with notes of white peach. Nice length

Quid Pro Quo, Malbec, Argentina

This Malbec is a delicious expression of the Uco Valley, with vibrant Plum and raspberry flavours complemented with fresh and spicy notes on the finish

Essensia, Orange Muscat, USA

Full bodied, sweet and complex, this fragrant dessert wine is made with rare orange muscat grapes. This luscious wine is full of apricot, orange, and pear flavours with bittersweet marmalade notes and balancing acidity

Optional: Penfolds Father Tawny, Australia - £6.50

10 years old and pale amber in colour, it is intensely scented of dried mulberries, sultanas, treacle and caramel with a marmalade lift. Big, expressive and rich, with a nuttiness in the mouth, it finishes very long and sweet.
